

Walthamstow Noyse

A Celebration of Tudor music

Saturday, 7th July 2018

500 years ago a family of immigrant musicians arrived in Walthamstow. The Bassanos, from Venice, became musicians to Henry VIII; their descendants, and some of the instruments they made, are still around today.

Help us rediscover their story, and that of Tudor Walthamstow.

- Installation
- micro concerts
- talks
- exhibitions
- Rehearse and perform a Tudor round
- Passamezzo
- Gary Stewart
- Waltham Forest Music Service Young Composers Group
- Edinburgh Primary School
- East London Radio
- Waltham Forest Oral History Workshop

clioscompany.co.uk • f @CliosCompany

Part of the Walthamstow Notes project

St Mary's Church
Church End
London E17 9RJ
1.30pm-8pm

Vestry House Museum
Vestry Road
London E17 9NH
1.30pm-4.30pm

